

Greg Knedler, Associate Vice President for Development Services, United States Air Force Academy Endowment

Greg Knedler is the Associate Vice President for Development Services at the United States Air Force Academy Endowment where he oversees systems and operations across the division. His 20-year career in annual giving and advancement includes work at Georgia State University, Auburn University, and with K-12 fundraising consultation.

He's a frequent presenter with CASE and holds a Masters in Marketing Education and a Bachelors in Marketing from Auburn University.