

Kelly Jackson, Development Director, Greccio Housing

Ms. Jackson has 20 years of experience in the Airport industry, most recently at the Colorado Springs Airport, where she served as Development Analyst and Public Affairs Administrator since 2004. Her focus while at the airport was primarily in the areas of PR, community outreach, marketing, business development, events/trade shows, public speaking and volunteer management. As such, Kelly is very well connected in the community. Kelly's non-profit experience includes managing a $1.5m Capital Campaign for a performing arts high school in Sacramento, California, and serving as Fundraising Coordinator for a wide variety of organizations. Kelly has also held a number of board positions within the Colorado Springs community including President of the Colorado Springs Executive Association, Secretary for the Western Museum of Mining and Industry, Secretary and Membership Chair for the Association of Fundraising Professionals, Coordinator and Event Chair for the Woman's Club of Colorado Springs-After 5 Group, and Vice President of Club En Chante. She was hired by Greccio in February 2013.
